WANDERERS

TRAVEL THOUSANDS OF MILES AND FIND IT AT HOME.

We go about from one place to another in search of something we desire, without success, and finally find it right at home awaiting us. A mining engineer out in Mansfield, Mo., tells of his experience with coffee.

He says, "Up to the year 1898 I had always been accustomed to drinking coffee with my breakfast each morning. In the summer of that year I developed a severe case of nervous prostration and I took several courses of treatment for it in Toronto, Buffalo and New York city without obtaining any permanent benefit."

"One of the most trying manifestations of the malady was a condition of nervous excitement in which I found myself every day during the forenoon. It never occurred to me to attribute this to coffee until I read an advertisement of yours last fall describing a case similar to my own which had received benefit from the use of Postum Cereal Food Coffee. I at once changed my breakfast beverage from Java and Mocha to Postum and the effect was nothing short of marvelous. After using it less than a week I was free from morning attacks and in six months all my nervous symptoms had disappeared."

"I have demonstrated the fact that by following your directions in making Postum Food Coffee any one can obtain as rich a cup of coffee from Postum as from any of the imported brands and may rest assured that they will escape the injurious effects of coffee and experience much benefit from the use of Postum." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

HANGED HIMSELF IN JAIL.

ILLINOIS MAN USED HIS SUSPENDERS AS MEANS OF SUICIDE.

Minonk, Ill., Oct. 8.—Robert Scott Douglass, a resident of Pontiac, Ill., hired a horse and buggy at Glanagan Friday and came to Minonk. Today he sold the outfit to a liveryman for $10. Later in the day it was learned that the outfit was stolen and the liveryman had Douglass arrested for horse stealing. He was put in the calaboose and in less than a half hour the marshal went in to see how he was getting along and found Douglass had hanged himself with his suspenders and was dead. He was a morphia fiend and was well known in this vicinity. He leaves a widow and five children.

NOTHING YET HEARD FROM J. F. RADEL, THE BOOKKEEPER.

The disappearance of Mr. J. F. Radel, the bookkeeper of the Ferguson and Palmer Milling Co., remains a mystery and no trace of the missing man has been secured since Sunday morning early.

It was at first thought possible that he had gone to his brother's home in Beardstown, Ill., but a telegram answer from that place yesterday stated that he was not there and requested more information as to his disappearance. It was later thought that he might have gone to Louisville to visit a friend but a telegram was sent there and an answer received stating that he had not been seen there.

BROKEN BOX.

OFFICERS FIND IT WITH THE MONEY GONE.

Officers Nance and Hovious found a slot box in the hollow near the Thompson [stook yards] this morning, the box had been burst open from the bottom and the lock had also been torn off. The break in the lock showed that the box had been lately broken into and several papers were found nearby where paper had been burned. The officers carried the box to the stock yard and from there it was taken to the city hall. It had the name of Henry Harley printed on it and evidently came off there. The box was small and evidently a contribution box for the benefit of some orphan asylum or something of that sort. An investigation is being made to see if the box was stolen from the steamer Harley.
